Missions Giving Update - Good News! Over the past 2 years we have been blessed to add 12 new names (single adults and families) to our supported missionary team. These people are an extension of our ministry and we co-labor with them in taking the Gospel to the ends of the earth! Now for the challenge - we need to increase our giving to "missions" to maintain our current support levels. If you are already giving to missions, prayerfully consider whether you could increase your giving. If you are not currently giving regularly to the mission fund, prayerfully consider beginning to give by designating your contribution towards the "missions fund." God has wonderfully blessed us with some great missionaries to support - pray and ask God to work in His redeemed people to supply this ongoing need.
